I reside at 15 Ziang Sui Road, West Gate, Nantao. During August, 1940, I lived at 66 Rue Hennequin, F.C. and worked at the Hao Ian Medicine Shop, 57 Tai Bing Jau (Rue Eugene Bard), as a shop assistant.

About 10 years ago, I adopted one named Tsiang Hung Mei as my son who came to my place very often. On the 15th day of 12th moon, 29th Year (Lunar Calendar) (i.e. Jan. 12, 1941), the uncle of my adopted son named Zee Soong Ling called on me at my home and informed me that his nephew Tsiang Hung Wei had had a deposit of $20,000.00 in the Wei Chung and the Shanghai Women's Banks. He added that my adopted son would like to establish a medicine shop by means of the said deposit, and requested my assistance in making such arrangement.

On the 28th day of 12th moon, 29th year (i.e. Jan. 25th, 1941), through my mediation, the purchase of the "Woo Foh Daung" Medicine Shop, Rue du March, for $48,000.00 was successful. On the following day (Jan.26th, 1941), an advanced money of $3,000.00 was paid by Tsiang Hung Kwei on behalf of his cousin Tsiang Hung Mei, arrangements having been made that the payment of remaining sum of money would be made on the 8th day of 1st moon, 30th year (i.e. Jan. 31st, 1941) the date of the shop's transfer.

On 30th Jan. 1941, I accompanied Tsiang Hung Kwei to the Wei Chung Bank where a sum of $10,000.00 was drawn. A visit was then paid to the Shanghai Women's Bank, $6,000. being drawn out. The drawn money totalling $16,000.00 was kept at my place.

At about 3.p.m. on the 5th day of 1st moon, 30th year (i.e. 31st Jan 1941), a telephone message was received at the Woo Poh Tsung Medicine Shop from "75" Jessfield Road (Wang Ching Wei's organization) reporting the arrest of Tsiang Hung Mei by Louza Police Station. Upon obtaining this information I absconded, taking with me the deposited money, to the house of my friend in Nantao.

On the 7th day of 1st moon, 30th year (i.e. Feb 2nd, 1941), I learned that my wife had also been arrested by Louza Police Station, whereupon I requested the assistance one surnamed Ying who appointed lawyer Yue Mang Chi for my wife's defense, this resulting in me expending to an extent of $10,500.00. Later my wife was released by the Court, and we two lived at Nantao address.

On the 26th day of 8th moon, 30th year (i.e. Oct.16, 1941), detectives led by Tsiang Hung Kwei visited my home and brought me and my wife to the Nantao Police Bureau, where I was accused for misappropriation. I informed the Nantao Police that the money I misappropriated was a ransom of a kidnapping case obtained by Tsiang Hung Mei who was at present undergoing imprisonment for 20 years. Per this admission, my wife Hue Jai Sz and I were handed over to Louza Police Station on 21.10.41.

The 4th and 10th suspects were taken before the S.S.D.Court on 6/2/41 when at the request of the Police, they were ordered by the presiding judge to be released.

Further interrogation of the suspects has revealed that after kidnapping one Sung Vong Sun (宋望生) vide C. F.I.R. 3064/40, the 7th suspect received $30,000.00 as his share of the ransom money.

Of this amount he paid $22,000.00 to his adopted father, one Hwo Vung S (華宏水) residing at No.66 Rue Hennequin, F.C., who was to negotiate the purchase of a medicine shop situated at No.75 Rue du Marche.

Enquiries at the Wu Foh Daung. Chong Chi (五福堂藥號) Chinese Medicine Shop, No.75 Rue du Marche, which is now owned and operated by one Ting Kwang Shing (丁廣城) verified the fact that he was contemplating selling his shop to Hwo Vung S, for a total of $[illegible].

On January 26th 1941 Hwo Vung S paid a deposit of $5,000.00, and the remainder was to have been paid on 5/2/41. This was agreed upon by the parties concerned.

After paying the deposit Hwo Vung S, sent six coolies to check stock etc.

Hwo failed to keep to the terms of the agreement and failed to pay the balance of $2b,000.00, which sum according to the 7th suspect he had in his possession.

On 3/2/41 Ting Kwang Shing inserted a notice in the Sin Wan Pao requesting Hwo Vung S to settle the question of the sale of the shop within three days, failing which the deposit would be confiscated.

On 6/2/41 Ting also attended Loh Mo Wei Station from whence he was handed over to the S.M.Police for enquiries regarding Hwo Vung S.

A perusal of his account books show that he received the $3,000.00 as stated and produced a duplicate copy of a receipt which he had given to Hwo.

He also handed the $3,000.00 to the Police against receipt. This being money illegally obtained, same will be presented to the Court later as an exhibit.

No information is available regarding the whereabouts of Hwo Vung S.

I am M/proprietor of the Wu Foh Daung Chong Chi Chinese Medicine Shop,75 Route Marche F.C. and reside there.

Following the purchase of the above medicine shop in July 1940,I gradually found it difficult to carry on my business due to the fact that I had no knowledge of medicine and also shotage of fund. On learning this,my manager,Ts Lai Ts,suggested to have my shop sold to his friend named Hwa Fun S,an assist.manager of the Lau Lai E Chinese Medicine Shop on Rue Eugene Bard who was anxious to purchase a medicine shop. To this I agreed. Arrangements regarding the sale of my shop were thus made with Hwa on several occasions through my manager and my relative named Lien Ying Kung which resulted in a sum of $28,000.00 for the purchase of my shop,being effected. Following which a sum of $3,000.00 was paid in advance on the afternoon of 26-1-41 by Hwa at my shop and the remaining $25,000.00 was to be paid on 30-1-41 A receipt for above sum($3,000.00) was issued by me same date,and I then had the sum($3,000.00) deposited in Sing Hwa Bank,Rue Lafayette Branch. On 30-1-41 Hwa suggested paying the remaining sum at the Koong Mien Restaurant,F.C. but I refused pointing out that it was not a suitable place for handing over a large sum of money. Hwa further promised to pay the remaining sum the following day at my shop. The next day Hwa,instead of keeping his promise,informed me that he would come to pay the said sum on the forenoon of 1-2-41. This was Hwa however also failed to do. At 3 p.m. 1-2-41 detectives from Louza Station together with French Police came to make enquiries at my shop.

They told me that according to one of their arrests in connection with a crime, a sum of $22,000.00 had been given to Hwa. I had received a sum of $3,000.00 from Hwa who was the man who was about to purchase my shop, but I did not know who else was concerned in the transaction. I also did not know the whereabouts of Hwa. I should further mention that following the agreement of the sale of my shop being effected on 26-1-41 it was decided that on 27-1-41 the purchaser(Hwa) should commence to take care of the business and Hwa despatched his men to my shop on 27-1-41. Since the arrival of the Police officers the men who had been despatched by Hwa left my shop and failed to return.

I am employed as a manager in the Woo Foh Dong Chinese Medicine Shop at No.75 Route Marche operated by Mr. Ting Tseu Shing. Owing to business depression last year the above shop was for sale. On 26/11/40 one named Wo Bung S assistant manager of the Lau Lai Yi Medicine Shop located on Rue Eugene Bard who is fairly well known to me, started negotiations regarding the sale of the medicine shop and deciding to pay $28,000.00 for it, $3,000.00 was paid in advance as a deposit. A receipt was issued to that effect. All merchandise etc in the shop was checked and handed into the care of the supervisors, about 6 in number, sent by Mr. Wo. The $25,000.00 Woo promised to pay on the 30/1/41. He was unable to do so on the date specified and subsequently he guaranteed to pay at 5 p.m. on 31/1/41, he again failed and made an appointment for 10 a.m. on 1/2/41. On the latter date, he did not put in an appearance and at 3 p.m. same day Police arrived at the Shop conducting enquiries. I informed them that Mr. Wo had been working in the Lau Lai Yi Medicine Shop for over 20 years. After Police Investigations, representatives sent by Mr. Wo left the shop and Wo also disappeared.

The suspects in custody have been further interrogated and as a result it has been ascertained that following the kidnapping of a male Chinese from Szechuen Road, the 2nd suspect received $32,000.00 as his share of the ransom money.

Out of this amount he invested $2,500.00 in the Ih Foong(益丰) Cotton Hong, operated by the 10th suspect Zung Tsi Sing.

On 5-2-41 this $2,500.00 was handed to the Police and enquiries show that the 10th suspect accepted the 2nd suspect as a partner in his concern, without any knowledge of the fact that the money had been illgally obtained.

Continued interrogation of the suspects reveal that the 4th accused Zung Lai Kyee is in no way concerned in this kidnapping gang, he has not been identified and none of the suspects have implicated him.

There being no evidence to warrant the further detention of the 4th accused [illegible]

It has further been ascertained that the 2nd suspect Woo Tsung Kya received a total of $40,000.00 as his share of the ransom-money paid by the family of Sung Ching Chow(沈錦洲) who was kidnapped on 2-8-40 from Wenchow Road, vide Sinza P.I.R. 2267/40.

He added that $20,000.00 of the above amount was deposited by him in the Bank of Communications No.438 Nanking Road in the name of Tsang Ts Kwen(張志貴).

The use of this fictitious name instead of his own was to allay suspicion.

A chop bearing the name Tsang Ts Kwen was found in his possession when arrested.

Enquiries have been made at the Bank of Communications where it was ascertained that the money was deposited on 27-2-40 in the name of Tsang Ts Kwen as related by the suspect.

Pass book No.2085 was issued at the time the money was placed in the bank, but the suspect claims that he lost this document and placed a notice in the local Chinese newspapers to this effect, and also notified the bank.

Since this money is part of the ransom application will be made to the [illegible] and a separate letter is to be sent to the [illegible]

REPORT

Date November 9, 1940.

Subject Arrest of Special Service Section detectives.

Made by D.S.I. Young Forwarded by Supt. Mason

At 4.25 p.m. November 9, P.S. 614 noticed four men quarrelling on North Szechuen Road near Dixwell Road and took them to Dixwell Road Police Station.

Complainants: Chen Chao-sun (陳招生), age 16, native of Kiangwan; Tsu Kyung-dee (朱金弟), also of Kiangwan.

Accused: (1) Sung Ts-kong (孫志剛), age 29, native of Chinkiang, married, living at No.289 Hu Ka Zah Road (胡家宅路), Chinese territory; (2) Lee Zu-dao (李如桃), age 30, native of Yangchow, an agent in the employ of the first accused.

The complainants stated that while bringing a quantity of cotton from Kiangwan to Shanghai, they met the two accused who claimed to be detectives and who demanded $5 from them. They offered the accused the $1 in their possession, but as the latter were not satisfied, a quarrel ensued.

The two accused denied the charge, stating that they were searching the two complainants for firearms, as a case had occurred in the Western District wherein firearms were concealed in cotton.

A badge was found on the person of the first accused showing that he was a member of the Special Service Section of the Second Group Headquarters of the National Reconstruction Army through Peace (和平建國軍第二集團總司令部諜查委特務股) with offices at Ni Ying Road (泥陰路), Nantao; the accused admitted that Letter purporting to have emanated from the Peace Salvation Army received at 8/666 Tiendong Road.

With reference to the attached W.H. Misc. Report No.450/40 on the subject of the Peace Salvation Army having on 26/10/40, delivered a letter to one Zee Zai Tseu (徐善斋) residing at Lane 666/8 Tiendong Road, instructing the recipient to appear before the Martial Law Office of the Army on November 1, 2 and 3 to answer certain charges etc., enquiries however failed to confirm that such an office exists at the address indicated in the letter. This will be explained by the fact that the address - Siao Mo Jao, Zia Tu Road, Nantao, (southern extention of Route Delastre, French Concession) - as stated in the letter is located within the area where martial law is being enforced by the Japanese Military in Nantao, thereby rendering it impossible for any person other than a Japanese to enter the area in question.

Enquiries from an indirect source also failed to show that such an office exists at the locality referred to above.

Sir,

On the morning of 12-11-40, as a result of questioning by D.I. Kao Yen-Ken (Special Branch) the following has been ascertained. The 1st arrested man, Miao Vung (繆南) stated that between 1927 and 1939 he held various ranks in the Central Government Army under Chiang Kai Shek. However after the fall of Nanking, he took the position of Chief Detective in the International Private Detective Agency, 367 Kiangssi Road and used this position as a blind to facilitate his movements as a guerilla. Later various member of this agency were arrested by French Police in connection with an extortion case and Miao Vung was implicated. In order to escape arrest, he gave himself up to the Japanese Authorities and later became a member of the Wang Ching Wei Army. Statement attached.

The four arrested men were finger printed but they were found to have no previous convictions.

A detailed list of papers and property found in Room 207 is attached.

Miao Vung(缪庸) alias Miao Loong Sung (缪龙声). // D.I. Kao Yen Ken(Sp.Br).

Changchow.

Louza Stn. 12-11-40.

I am aged 45 a native of Changchow and married. I am the Deputy Commander-in-Chief of the Peace Alliance Army with a headquarters at Nanking and offices at 73 Chao Foong Tsung, Yu Yuen Road O.O.L. and in the New Asia Hotel, Tiendong Road. This army consists of 40,000 men fully equipped and divided into 4 "armies". Concurrently I hold the post of the Commander of the 4th Army of the Peace Alliance Army comprising of 23,000 men now stationed at Changchow, Wusieh, Quinsan, Tsingpu and Pootung. I have my headquarters at Quinsan. Arrangements are being made by me to establish a Shanghai Office of the 4th Army at 47 Yai Kou Ka, Nantao.

After being educated in the Changchow Provincial Middle School, Changchow, I proceeded with my relatives to Manchuria where I served as a Major in General Chang Hsueh-liang's Army. That was in 1927. After 8 months, I joined the Central Military Academy Branch at Hankow. In 1929 I graduated from the academy and later served as Chief Adjutant (副官主任) in the North Hankow Garrison Headquarters (漢口北区要塞司令部). In 1931(Dec.) when the army was disbanded I came to Shanghai and became the Chief Adjutant of the Woosung Fort Garrison Headquarters (吳淞要塞司令部), which was dissolved during a Sino-Japanese Conflict in 1932.

Soon later I was employed as the comprador of the S.S. "Tachao" (达知) of Messrs Jardine Matheson for a year. (Shanghai-Hankow Line).

In 1934, I again proceeded to Hankow and joined the 30th Army of the Central Army under General Sun Yin Ang (魏鬼道二) as Commander of the 3rd Regiment, 7th Brigade of the 1st Division.

In 1937, when Sino-Japanese hostilities again broke out in Shanghai, I was transferred to Shanghai. Then I served as the Commander of the 3rd Brigade, 45th Division of the 7th Army under General Tang Sung Ts(唐生智). When Shanghai and Nanking was lost and occupied by the Japanese, I became the Commander-in-Chief of the Kiangsu-Chekiang-Anhwei Eastern Route Guerrilla Unit(苏浙皖東区游警隊) with 13,000 men along the Shanghai Nanking Railway. That unit was under the instructions of General Tai Chih(戴戟) (General Chiang Kai Shek's man).

Meanwhile, in order to facilitate my movements in Shanghai, I operated with a Portuguese named Silva in the Wu Chow(International Private Detectives' Agency, 367 Kiangse Road and served as a herbalist with an office at 83 Kwangse Road. Owing that some of the private detectives committed an extortion case in the French Concession and the French Police arrested and convicted 4 of the detectives and attempted to arrest me and further that the Japanese authorities also endeavoured to arrest me, I surrendered to the Commander Huang Kwei Wung(黄撰文) of the Peace Alliance Army, who appointed me to my present posts. On the recommendation of Commander Huang, I was appointed "General" by the Nanking Government.(Wang Ching Wei). I usually stay in Quinsan.

Su 09582

On October 24, 1940 I came to Shanghai with six officers and stayed in the Great Shanghai Hotel, Tientsin Road. I had an instruction from the Commander-in-Chief of the Peace Alliance Army to take part in Major Fu Shiao An's Funeral Procession on October 27.

On October 26, I received 9 suits of uniform for officers and 24 for soldiers from the Shanghai Office on Yu Yuen Road. On October 27, I together with 6 officers and 3 guards all in uniform attended the funeral procession. Following the funeral service, the officers and men left for their billets. I am now keeping the uniform for men to be posted in the New Nantao Office of my army.

I also have instructions to move 1000 of my men to Chow Ka Jao, off Warren Road in the Western District to be served as guards to the New Major Chen Kung Poh. He is to arrive at Shanghai to assume the new post on November 12 or 13 but no definite information has been received. Some one hundred coloured paper posters bearing slogans welcoming the New Major have been prepared by members of my Political Section. They were in my room in the Great Shanghai Hotel and arrangements were made to have them exhibited in the New Civic Centre, Nantao, Chapei and Jessfield Village on Nov. 12.

My elder brother is General Miau Bei Nan(繆北南), under General Chiang Kai Shek, and his men are now stationed at Kwenming(昆明).

My name is Yue Bei Yoong. I am a native of [illegible] and am employed as a coolie by the Fah Kee Transportation Co., 674 North Soochow Road.

At about 8.00a.m. on July 6th. 1940, in accordance with my daily routine I set out to deliver some tax stamps and documents to the loadah of a boat lying in Soochow Creek at Poh Sing Kyung. I proceeded by bus to a point on Jessfield Road near Kresnas Road where I engaged a riesha to complete the journey.

On arriving at a point on Jessfield Road near the rear entrance to Jessfield Road, when three make Chinese who were loitering on the left side of the roadway, stepped into the thepath of the riesha and speaking in Shanghai dialect all ordered the riesha to stop saying "Faung-po-tsho ding-la-le, veh yau doung" and at the same time I saw that one of them dressed in white clothing carrying a pistol which he held in a threatening attitude.

The riesha puller immediately stopped and placed the shafts on the ground and I stood upright on the footboard. The armed man then approached closer and holding his pistol in one hand he search my pockets with the other and removed two one dollar notes, one three cents bus tokes and a letter from my right outside jacket pocket and placed these articles in his own left outside jacket pocket. In the meanwhile the other two robbers were standing at the side of the riesha but did not say or do anything.

Although I had not raised an alarm, at this juncture three or four male Chinese who afterwards proved to be Policemen, appeared from behind and at each side of the ricsha and opened fire on the three robbers and brough them all three to the ground.

I was later escorted to Bubbling Well Station where I was shown three lots of bank notes two of which included a three cents bus token. In this lot of $2.20 I picked out one reddish and bluish coloured dollar note which are similar to those stolen by the armed robber. The three cents bus token also appears to be mine.

Whilst in the Station I also saw a male Chinese whom I recognised as one of the two unarmed robbers.

Sirs,

According to the China Press, one of its reporters was given an interview by the Council and this Army was reported to have established its Headquarters in an outside road and engaged in unlawful activities thereby menacing the maintenance of peace and order. In this connection we wish to point out that this Army was organized about 8 months ago with an object to effect national salvation by peace movement, having offices in Nantao; no offices being conducted in outside roads. Besides, military discipline is strictly maintained and all of our men carry out orders and observe law. Fearing that traitorous people might use the name of this Army to cause a disturbance and that our position might be misunderstood we would draw your attention to such malicious statement with the hope that you will not get confused in the matter as it reflects upon this Army and the maintenance of peace and order is involved.

Made by D.S.I. Liao Chung-chien. Forwarded by D. I. Crawford.

In September, 1939, Wang Ching Wei, the ex-Deputy Executive of the Kuomintang of China, to reinforce his peace movement, proceeded to form a "China Peace National Salvation Alliance Army" (中華救國和平同盟軍) known in brief as "Peace National Salvation Army" (和平救國軍) which was to include in its ranks ex-soldiers, policemen and guerillas who had been induced to support Wang's cause. Wu Dah Si (吳大西), alias Wu Chang Ching (吳長清), was appointed commander of the proposed unit and subsequently established an office at the former site of the Chapei Benevolent Society off Dah Tung Road (大通路), Chapei.

The army took form towards the end of September, 1939 after several hundred men from various walks of life had been recruited under its banner. Some 300 of them under the command of Hu Teh Zang (胡德章), alias Hu Zang Ying (胡章英), were despatched to the enclaves in the Western District at the beginning of October, 1939 when they established an office at No.18 Brenan Road, O.O.L. However, at the end of the same month they were transferred to Chapei and Lunghwa on account of their carrying out illegal activities in the area and thereafter the army has maintained only recruiting offices in the Western District. Some five recruiting offices were later organized but only the

"PEACE NATIONAL SALVATION ARMY" DISBANDED BY JAPANESE IN NANTAO

According to information from reliable sources, the so-called "Peace National Salvation Army" in Nantao was entirely disbanded by the Japanese military authorities yesterday afternoon.

At noon yesterday, 40 Japanese soldiers armed with light machine guns first raided the barracks of a detachment of the "Peace National Salvation Army" at Pai Yun Kuan Temple (白雲觀). Several of the soldiers were arrested and all documents and ammunition were removed. A portrait of the late Dr. Sun Yat-sien and a Koumintang flag were also taken away. A large number of the soldiers who had received advance information of the intending raid made good their escape.

At about 1 p.m. yesterday, the Japanese soldiers raided the barracks of a detachment of the "Peace National Salvation Army" in Kuan Ti Miao Temple (關帝廟) near West Gate and placed all the soldiers under arrest.

The barracks of the second detachment of the "Peace National Salvation Army" at the Chingkiang Guild near West Gate were also raided. No arrests were made for all the soldiers had already decamped after discarding their badges and armlets. The Japanese then stopped all traffic nearby and commenced to examine the passes of all pedestrains with the result that 10 puppet soldiers were captured.

The reason for the disbandment of the "Peace National Salvation Army" in Nantao is unknown.

Suspected activities in the Settlement of agents of the "National Peace Salvation Army".

Sir,

There is every indication that agents of the "National Peace Salvation Army"(和平救國軍) movement are surreptitiously operating in the Settlement (South of Creek),or are probably endeavouring to establish branch offices,particularly in hotels and lodging houses,for the supposed purpose of enrolling members or circulating propaganda.

Several Kempo men claiming to be members of the above organization were found closeted together in Room 58,Wei Tsoong Hotel(惠中),136 Shantung Road, at about 6p.m.January 8.

Sir, A check by Sp. Br. shows that these people moved out on 9/1/40 p.m.

They did not appear at the time to be engaged in any subversive activities although examination of an attache case found in the room revealed note-paper, envelopes and chops definitely connecting them with the "National Peace Salvation Army".

The occupants of the room were closely questioned and all emphatically denied that they were assembled there for any political reasons.

It was also ascertained that other members of the Group are occupying Room 340,Wei Tsoong Hotel(惠中)

For the past two years I have never neglected my duty as a citizen of the Republic of China and have always struggled hard despite the difficulties in accordance with the nation's policy. Although I was expelled from Shanghai in August this year, my determination has never wavered.

Lately I have learned that certain persons in Shanghai have made unauthorized use of my name in the formation of organizations. As my duty is confined only to wharf affairs, I dare not go beyond my work and I disclaim any part in other activities. Furthermore, the financial matters of the labour union under my charge are handled solely by me and other responsible officials and, apart from appealing to the National Government for relief, I have never despatched any persons to solicit subscriptions from the public. I hereby publish this notice so that any person who makes contributions in ignorance of the fact will do so at his own risk.

"PEACE ALLIED ARMY" DENOUNCES ILLEGAL ACTIVITIES

The following advertisement, inserted by the "Peace Allied Army" Headquarters located at Ping Ming Tsung (平民村), Chungshan Road, appears in the "Sin Shun Pao" to-day :-

It is detestable that outlaws, making use of our name, are engaged in corrupt practices. Besides instituting a strict investigation, we publish this advertisement in the hope of getting genuine reports on anything of this nature from the public. As regards our stand, we have already announced in a circular notification that we, with the exception of organizing guerrillas at various places in accordance with the peace policy, never interfere in outside affairs. This army is under strict discipline and there are no complaints about the conduct of our men so far. People in Hangchow and Sungkiang have good impressions of the discipline of this army. It is absolutely unnecessary for us to raise funds from the public in support of this army as we have an ample reserve fund.

Made by D.S.I. Liao Chung Chien Forwarded by C. Crawford

The China Peace National Salvation Army (中国和平救国同盟军), which is being organized by Wang Ching Wei, the ousted Deputy Chief of the Kuomintang, has established a "Recruiting Office" (招募处) in 76 Jessfield Road, the Headquarters of the Special Service Corps of the Chung Kuo Kuomintang Anti-Comintern and National Salvation Army, with one Wang Tseng Ching (王子清) in charge. Wang, it is stated, is a follower of Zi Li Chung (徐陵中), a loafer and the proprietor of the San Ming Bath House (三民浴室), corner of Brenan and Jessfield Roads, O.O.L.

Ex-guerilla members, soldiers and policemen may enrol with the recruiting office on recommendation by persons having connection with the pro-Wang Ching Wei clique. After joining, members will be issued a monthly pay of $24.00 each and will be despatched to join the various units of the army distributed in the suburbs of Shanghai.

(Vide Special Branch report dated 12/10/39).

It will be recalled that some 300 men of this Army entered the enclaves at the beginning of October, 1939 and were billeted at 18 Brenan Road, O.O.L.. They, however, were transferred to Chapei and Lunghwa towards the end of the same month.

PEACE ARMY RECRUITING LOAFERS IN WESTERN DISTRICT

The so-called "Peace Army" is again contemplating certain activities in the "badlands" in the Western District. It will be remembered that the members of this army consist mostly of the armed followers of the mixed brigade of the Wang Ching-wei clique. In the hope of supporting their master in the assumption of his office, they are now making preparations for the expansion of their organization.

Besides establishing a branch in a village behind the Mint in Chapei, they have set up many "Recruiting Depots" in the "badlands." However, due to the poor response on the part of the residents nearby, but very few persons have been enlisted. Consequently, they have detailed representatives to Zau Ka Tu to continue enrolling loafers and in addition large numbers of running dogs have been sent to the suburban districts around Shanghai to induce ignorant and poor peasants to join the puppet army. It is said that as soon as an adequate number has been enlisted, training will begin.

The Western District Unit (strength about 300) of the "China Peace National Salvation Alliance Army" (中華和平救國同盟軍), which is being organized by Wang Ching Wei, was transferred from No. 18 Brenan Road, O.O.L. towards the end of October. Some 200 of them are now billeted in the Ping Ming Tsung (平民村) (or Civilian Village) behind the Mint opposite the Ichang Road bridge (Chapei) and the remaining 100 at Lunghwa. This unit is under the command of Hu Teh Zang (胡德常) alias Hu Zang Ying (胡常英), residing at 104 Tien Tung An Road, Kiangwan.

Owing to the activities of Chinese guerillas in the Shanghai-Nanking and Shanghai-Hangchow railway zones, the Japanese authorities, on October 31, effected the following transfers of the units of the said "Army":-

(1) 200 men under the command of Regimental Commander Wong Ching Piao (王金標) were transferred from Lunghwa to the area between Kashing and Changan along the Shanghai-Hangchow Railway.

(2) 200 men of the Independent Section under the command of Mah Soong San (馬松山) were transferred from Dazang to the area between Changchow and Wusieh along the Shanghai-Nanking Railway.

This unit was formerly a guerilla unit operating between Changchow and Wusieh. It recently surrendered to Wang Ching Wei's clique and was reorganized into an independent section of the China Peace National

"PEACE ALLIED ARMY" IN WESTERN DISTRICT TRANSFERRED TO HANGCHOW AND CHANGCHOW

In the middle of September this year, a "Peace Allied Army" was formed in the extra-Settlement roads area in the Western District of Shanghai and established headquarters on Brenan Road, Edinburgh Road and vicinity. The army then posted handbills at Zau Ka Tu supporting a certain person. Afterwards, members of the army recruited men including more than 1,000 unemployed undesirables. A section of the men carry Mauser pistols or big swords on duty outside their headquarters, while others are unarmed and are not allowed to go out.

During the past few days, guerrillas have been very active along the Shanghai-Nanking and the Shanghai-Hangchow Railways and severe fighting has taken place at Hangchow and Changchow with the Japanese soldiers. Due to the weakness of the Japanese at these places, puppet soldiers have been transferred to engage the guerrillas.

A few days ago, the unit of the "Peace Allied Army" in the Western District under Zang Ying (常英) received an order to move to Hangchow to engage the guerrillas. Yesterday, the unit of the army under Kao Feng-kwei (高鳳桂) received an order transferring his men to Changchow.

The men of the "Peace Allied Army" dared not oppose the order. They put on the military uniforms issued by the Japanese to disguise them as Japanese soldiers and were sent to Changchow.

The Western Branch Office of the "China Peace National Salvation Alliance Army," which is controlled by one Hu Teh Zang (胡德章), alias Hu Zang Ying (胡章英), is also known as the Office of the "Zang Ying Detachment of the China Peace National Salvation Aliance Army" (中國和平同盟軍章英部隊). It removed from House No.66, North Zao Ka Zah, off Brenan Road, O.O.L., to No.18, Brenan Road (east of Edinburgh Road), O.O.L., yesterday, October 12, 1939. The former address, No.66 North Zao Ka Zah, off Brenan Road, has been transformed into a "Recruiting Office" of the Army.

Meantime the newly established "Recruiting Office" is making arrangements to canvass members. Able-bodied persons may enrol with the Army on a guarantee furnished by any of the shops situated in the Western District but those who can bring firearms to the Army will be admitted without guarantors. Members will be supplied with food, lodging and clothing free of charge and will receive a monthly pay of $30.00 each.

Members of this Army who were hitherto dressed in plain clothes, now wear green uniforms and hats each of which bears a Kuomintang emblem, i.e. a white star on a blue background.

They carry the following slogans :-

1. Mr. Wang is the Leader of the Chinese Nation.
2. Mr. Wang is the genuine leader of the Kuomintang of China.

Wang Ching-wei has recently appointed one Wu Da Si (吳大西) alias Wu Chang Ching (吳長清), native of Shaoshing, Chekiang Province, aged over 50, real estate owner in Chapei (閘北), to be Commander of a so-called "China Peace National Salvation Aliance Army" (中華和平救國同盟軍) which is about to be formed.

Wu has established his offices on the former site of the Chapei Benevolent Society off Tatung Road (大統路), Chapei. On 20.9.39 he appointed one Koo Ping Hwai (過炳槐), native of Kiangsi, aged around 46, ex-military official under Marshal Sun Chuang Fong (孫傳芳) (deceased), to be Commander of the First Division of the aforesaid army. The letter of appointment bears the White Sun and Blue Sky emblem with a small size five barred flag above the 'sun'. This is most probably the emblem of a new Central Government to be inaugurated by Wang Ching-wei.

Koo, the divisional commander, who commenced functioning on 25.9.39 in his office on the former site of the Children's Nursery (兒童教養院) off Soong Kung Yuen Road (宋公園路), Chapei, is now endeavouring to enlist 200 men as guards for the army headquarters and to persuade Soong Teh Sheng (宋德勝), guerilla leader with a strength of approximately 700 men in the

It is further learned that Wang Ching-wei's representatives have discussed with Ting Sih Shan (丁锡山), guerilla leader in Pootung, who has about 4000 men, for his surrender and the reorganization of his men into a Second Division of Wang's army, which is to remain at Fenghsien (奉贤), Nanwei (南汇) and Chuansha (川沙).

According to information from reliable sources, Ting Sih Shan has been induced by Wang's representatives to proceed to the Western District, O.O.L., from where he has been escorted to Hongkew. He will not be set free until arrangements for the surrender of his men have been completed.

B'Well [illegible] 8th July, 1940. translated Clerk [illegible]

My name is Woo [illegible] Seah Wong. I am 25 years of age, and am married, native of Kompo.

At about 9.00a.m. on July 6th., 1940 I was sitting on the foot board of my unlicenced public ricsha which was parked on Jessfield Road near Robison Road, when a male Chinese approached from east and sat in my ricsha and instructed me to pull him towards the west. Following his instructions I proceeded along Jessfield Road and when near the rear gate of Jessfield Park, three male Chinese stepped out from the side of the road. One of them who was wearing white clothing and ordered me to stop and at the same time produced a pistol which he held in a threatening manner.

I immediately stopped my ricsha and placed the shafts on the ground. The passenger then stood up on the foot-board and the armed man searched him and removed some banknotes from his outer pocket and then placed them in his own pocket.

At this juncture three or four male Chinese approached us from various directions and said "Veh iam deong" and opened fire with the result that all three robbers fell to the ground.

I was later escorted to B'Well Police Station where I saw a male Chinese whom I recognised as one of the unarmed robbers.

black Chinese styled overcoats also entered the lane. He was pulled by the men towards the house No.7 and entered via the front door, which was open as the servants were cleaning the house. On entering the ground floor front room the first two men produced pistols and one of the other two men who followed them pulled out a Mauser and intimidated the watchman, and the man in uniform cap searched him. On ascertaining that the watchman was not armed, the men told him to keep quiet and the man wearing uniform cap stood guard over him, whilst the other three men, proceeded upstairs. On the stairway they encountered an amah Sung Wah Ka (沈宋花) and ordered her to switch on the lights, and then entered the complainant's (front first floor) room the door of which was not locked.

The man wearing dark brown overcoat, armed with a pistol saw the complainant and her husband sleeping in bed and awakened them by calling to them to get up. Then he told them not to be afraid as they were guerrillas looking for opium. Mr. Wong Kwa Kai then saw another man going upstairs and requested them not to frighten the children who were in a room on the 2nd floor. The man in dark brown overcoat told the complainant not to worry and then proceeded to open and examine drawers of the wardrobe and chest of drawers. Some of the drawers were locked and the complainant was told to open them, which she did. On finding nothing the man approached Mr. Wong Kya Zai, in order, apparently, to search him and the latter produced his wallet. The armed man took out the money, about $70.00 and left the wallet on the table. On arrival of the Police the room had already been cleaned, therefore no finger prints could be found. At that time the man armed with a mauser came down from the 2nd floor rooms and brought two amahs and the two complainant's daughters, after which the complainant and her husband were ordered to come down to the ground floor, where all the members of the household except Mr. Wong were forced into a bedroom and locked therein. The complainant then saw that their 3rd amah and a slave girl were already there.

Then the watchman was also brought there and locked together with the inmates, after which the armed men left taking Mr. Wong with them. A few minutes later some of the neighbours came into the house to enquire what the matter was and released the complainant and the other inmates.

Further enquiries were made amongst the neighbours and several witnesses (names known to investigating detectives) were located who had seen the armed men arrive in a M/car No.[illegible] from the Westerly direction. The

M/car was turned about and parked near the entrance of the lane, where it waited for the return of the armed men, who placed Mr. Tong into the car and drove away west along Yu Yuen Road.

It was learned from the Traffic Office that the M/car Lic.No.5419 was registered in the named of Wu Zang Ying, residing at No.ED4, Lane No.318 Tiendong Road. This address was visited by D.S.I. Bartes with assistance of D.S. Sameshima and C.D.C.222 of Hongkew Station and was found to be a branch office of the Special Section of the Japanese Army. Neither the car nor Wu Zang Ying could be found, but a Japanese named K. Nakajima confirmed that the M/car Lic.No.5419 belonged to their office and was licensed in the name of Wu Zang Ying, who was employed and resided at the above address. K. Nakajima further added that he himself used the said M/car between 5.30am. and 11.30a.m. 2-12-39, but denied having been in the vicinity of Yu Yuen Road.

Mr. Yonke, D.O. "B" was informed and on his instructions a message was circulated by teleprinter to all stations, requesting to stop M/car Lic.No.5419.

Further interviewed by detectives, the complainant said that the only party, who could wish any harm to her husband was one Zoo Mun Tsang (朱茂昌) who had a grudge against her husband, because of a financial dispute wh resulted from the bankruptcy of the Hung Lei (恒泰) native bank about 6 years ago, when Zee's father, who had managed the bank's affairs, lost his capital and Mr. Wong's father, who was a partner of the bank, refused to share the loss. This dispute was the subject of the Court proceedings in July 1939 when Zee lost his case. He was known to have told his friends that he would find some way to bring pressure upon Mr. Wong in order to make him settle the dispute in a way favourable to Zee. According to the complainant her husband had no other enemies and had no connection with any political affairs.

The complainant was advised to inform the Police immediately if she receives any communication either from her husband or from his abductors.
